Amoris laetitia calls on the Church to minister in a different way to families. In A New Vision of Family Life, Fr. Louis J. Parents play a vital role as their children prepare for the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist through the catechumenal process. Available in English and Spanish, this booklet answers the questions parents and guardians often ask as they help their children embrace the faith of the Catholic Church. It can also assist initiation coordinators, parish staff members, and catechists to begin a conversation with the parents and guardians as they and their children start on the path outlined in the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults.

Ideally, this resource will be given to the parents or guardians after the initial, face-to-face meeting and reinforce the explanation of why it is so important for parents or guardians to be involved in their child’s journey of faith: the Church says that parents are the primary catechists of their children and wishes for them accompany their children on the journey.

With three distinct themes now available, the Ministry Enrichment Gathering® allows parish and diocesan leaders to partner with LTP for a day of prayer, training, and formation.

The Ministry Enrichment Gathering® offers dioceses, regions, vicariates, and parish clusters the opportunity to collaborate with Liturgy Training Publications in providing formation, prayer, and training for those involved in the Church’s liturgical and catechetical ministries. Designed to invite Catholics to a deeper understanding of the liturgy, the mission of the Church, and the formation of the parish community, the Ministry Enrichment Gathering® offers local communities the opportunity to provide formation to their parish staffs, catechists, and liturgical ministers through a blend of presentations, prayers, and reflection. During the day-long gathering, presentations will explore the foundational and theological aspects of liturgy, mission, and evangelization through an innovative blend of storytelling, lecture, art, and music. Participants will also join in fellowship: over lunch, at midday prayer, and at a concluding mystagogical reflection.

The Ministry Enrichment Gathering® is available in three distinct themes: Liturgy as Source and Summit, From Mass to Mission: Liturgy and Evangelization, and The Initiating Parish: Handing On What We Have Received.

To collaborate with Liturgy Training Publications to provide a Ministry Enrichment Gathering®, please contact LTP’s Training and Events Team at 773-579-4900 ext.3532, by e-mail at training@LTP.org, or visit www.MinistryEnrichmentGathering.org.

THE YEAR OF GRACE LITURGICAL CALENDAR 2019

About the Art:

Count the days and weeks of this liturgical year, reminded of Christ’s prophetic spirit poured out on four great prophets, and on all God’s people. This year’s art, by Cody Miller, portrays Christ enthroned holding a scroll with the prophecy of Joel: “Your sons and your daughters will prophesy.” Christ’s Holy Spirit pours out the spirit of prophesy on God’s people of every time and place. In the four corners we see four great prophets—Deborah, Isaiah, Ezekiel, and Anna—who manifested that prophetic spirit in the pages of Sacred Scripture. Reading clockwise from the upper left, three prophets from the Old Testament appear with their scrolls: Deborah (Judges 4–5), Isaiah (shown with his wife and children), and Ezekiel, eating the scroll with the Word of God given to him by the winged creature. In the lower left corner, the New Testament prophetess, Anna, tells everyone that the infant Jesus, presented in the Temple by his parents, is the redeemer of Israel.

The Year of Grace 2019 liturgical year calendar follows the Sunday Year C cycle and the Weekday Year I cycle, beginning on December 2, 2018 (First Sunday of Advent) and ending on Saturday, November 30, 2019.

About the Artist:

Cody F. Miller is from Columbus, Ohio, where he resides with his wife and two sons. He received his Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in 1995 from Columbus College of Art and Design in Columbus. For sixteen years, Mr. Miller was the art instructor at Art Bridge Studio, a division of United Cerebral Palsy of Central Ohio, and he is currently a resident artist at the Goodwill Art Studio and Gallery. He works with cut paper and paint “to convey some degree of hope . . . in a way which shows the quiet fingerprint of God saying, ‘I was here all along.’”
This resource guides you to a deeper understanding of the Sunday Scriptures, providing the readings for this liturgical year, insights from Scripture scholars, and action steps. The book also includes prayers and citations for weekday readings. Both individuals and groups find a deeper understanding of the Sunday Scriptures in At Home with the Word: read, ponder, discuss, act, and pray. Additional reflection questions and action steps for families, Christian initiation, and adult faith-sharing groups may be downloaded from the LTP website.

The Large Print edition offers increased readability that serves both individual and group study. This book offers rich insights from Scripture scholars, reflection questions, action steps, seasonal prayers, and citations for weekday readings. Additional reflection questions and action steps for families, Christian initiation, and adult faith-sharing groups may be downloaded online.

Translated in Spanish, Palabra de Dios offers to both individuals or groups a deeper understanding of the Sunday Scriptures as well as the opportunity to share their Catholic faith: read, ponder, discuss, act, and pray together.

Whether you are a proclaimer of the Word or training proclaimers, this is the resource to have to grow in the ministry and help others proclaim effectively.

The Liturgical Ministry Series® provides the essential formation needed for training new ministers and rejuvenating the work of committed veterans. Each guide offers sound theological, historical and liturgical background for each ministry. Through the exploration of the practical, pastoral, and spiritual concerns of each ministry, liturgical ministers are formed, prepared, and inspired to serve at the liturgy.
In Sacrosanctum Concilium, the Fathers of the Second Vatican Council first expressed that “the treasures of the Bible” should be “opened up more lavishly” for all the faithful. Many Catholics still desire greater familiarity with the Word of God. With this in mind, LTP developed the Liturgy and the Bible series, inviting Scripture scholars to reflect on how liturgy and the Bible illuminate one other. Through thoughtful insights and lively, accessible language, the books in this series lead readers to appreciate the dynamic role of Scripture in the liturgy, and through liturgy, in their lives.
